As pet owners, we avoid sharing food because what we eat isn't always good for them, and sometimes, not good for us either. That's why we worked hard to create snacks you could enjoy together without the guilt. Each of our recipes contain only 4 ingredients and are inspired by human snacks that dogs go nuts for, but refracted to make them healthy and wholesome with all the same delicious flavors.  We'll be selling our line including 5 treat flavors and exclusive ornaments for the holidays.

Lily's Bone To Pick	Sharon M Lupo	info@lillybonetopick.com	www.lillybonetopick.com	www.Facebook.com/lillybonetopickhodeisland	www.instagram.com/lillybonetopick	Lily's Bone To Pick is a pet lifestyle brand based in Rhode Island. We are a Woman Owned and Operated business that was launched in 2010. We are upscale, unique, environmentally conscious and snarky.  We make handmade dog treats with only six human grade ingredients exclusively at Hope and Main in Warren, Rhode Island. Our pets are our family members, so we would never feed them treats that were over processed and contained all sorts of preservatives.  The most unique items we have are our decorative collars made from the up cycling of old dress shirts. Pets across the country proudly wear these collars for all their business meetings and dates. Dapper and well-dressed are some of the ways that pet parents have described these to us.  We also offer handmade Pet Bandanas in three different sizes. All bandanas are fully lined and always 100% pre-shrunk cotton. From the smallest pup (or cat, or baby goat) to the largest, we have something for everyone.  We've recently added pet themed wine and pint glasses to our offerings. They include snarky sayings like "My Dog and I Talk Shit About You" or "My Cat and I Talk Shit About You". Proud Dog Moms and Dads also have their pick of glasses.  We also do holiday and seasonal items including bandanas and wine glasses.  Our process...
